Ministry Description:

Evangelism

- Establish relationships within the congregation in order to develop a strategy of outreach for our church body, and to learn and utilize the gifting of people to develop a team for the outreach ministry.
- Make personal connections with people outside the church through community involvement, other organizations, evangelistic Bible studies etc., in order to reach unbelievers and help them connect to our church family for discipleship.
- Active involvement in, and serve as a resource person, for personal and group evangelism and outreach/evangelistic Bible studies.

Training in Evangelism

- Model personal evangelism/outreach, and equip others for developing relationships with unbelievers.
- Develop and train/mentor others as lay leaders to be actively involved in outreach ministry.
- Assist Outreach Committee to plan outreach events and strategies to connect with unbelievers, including reaching out to new residents in our ministry area.
- Provide materials and systems to encourage and equip believers to confidently share Christ with others.

College Ministry

- Coordinate and oversee a ministry for college-age adults, which may include Bible studies, events, and social activities.
- Train and mentor lay-leaders to serve in this ministry, and once established, to provide continued oversight and training for a growing ministry.

Follow-Up/Assimilation Ministry

- Provide leadership and direction to create a follow-up plan that will connect new believers or new attenders to our church body where their needs can be met in a small group setting (such as Bible studies and Sunday school) for discipleship.

- Equip people for “Care ministries” – utilize individual gifting and life experience (DivorceCare, GriefShare, women’s support groups etc.) and assimilate people into those ministries.

Characteristics/Gifting:

- Passion for reaching unbelievers (gift of evangelism), and characterized as someone who has current relationships with the un-churched.
- Grounded in the Word and theologically compatible with Chisholm Baptist.
- Godly character; humble, mature, with a heart for souls and a sense of calling to ministry.
- Possess an understanding of the culture and has a proven track record evidencing excellent leadership, administrative, communication and team- building skills.
- Ability to motivate, inspire and build a team.
- Good interpersonal and organizational skills, to delegate responsibilities, and cast a vision.

The Minister of Evangelism and Outreach works directly under the supervision of the pastor and the Pastoral Relations Committee.
